

A 'JOLLY' GOOD SHOW IN ASSOCIATION WITH t2

After he sang for Chandni with Sridevi, people stopped calling him to concerts "because they thought they would have to call Sridevi as well"! That's Jolly Mukherjee making sure that the audience had a jolly good time at Rhapsody @ Jhaal Farezi, in association with t2, on Friday evening.

"This place reminds me of an English pub. It's a great experience to be performing in such a close-knit atmosphere, where you can interact with each member in the audience. I really enjoy doing concerts in Calcutta," said Jolly.

"Jolly Mukherjee brought in a lot of surprise elements. He talked about a lot of things we did not know in Bollywood, like his experience while singing for Chandni. He is a very good speaker," said Bikram Banerjee, director, hospitality operations, Ambuja Neotia Group.

Very refreshing. We are done with all that dhoom dhamaka that keeps happening at clubs. I hope more such places come up in Calcutta so that people know where to go in the evenings. People like us are hungry for such entertainment
